

the 1990s, the number of people in the UK with a mental health problem has increased by 50% (Mental Health Act 1983, 1993). The prevalence of mental health problems has increased in the UK, and this has led to a corresponding increase in the number of people with mental health problems who are in contact with the criminal justice system (Mental Health Act 1983, 1993).

The purpose of this study was to investigate the prevalence of mental health problems in the UK, and to identify the factors that are associated with mental health problems. The study was conducted in the UK, and the results are presented in this paper.
